II. Learning Goals of this course:

1. To prepare the students to acquaint with the New Testament Greek to lay a foundation;
2. To provide them with a tool for reading the New Testament with help.

III. Learning Tools

To achieve the learning goals, the students will be required to do the following:

1. Students are expected to arrive at the class room latest 5 minutes before the class starts.
2. Students are expected to attend all the classes without interruption.
3. Assignments:
  - 1) Mastery of basic Greek forms (verb forms, definite article, pronoun, participle), and essential vocabulary. These must be conquered.
  - 2) Preparation of the assigned portions in the graded "Reader" and the Syntax. Memorization of vocabulary.
  - 3) Daily quizzes, a mid-term test, and a final comprehensive examination.

4. Required Textbooks

Red Book edited and expanded by Dr. Harold Shelly. Available online at the instructor 's website, <http://all4jesus.net>

The Greek New Testament With Greek-English Dictionary (Hardcover), 4'th ed. New York: United Bible Society. Available through American Bible Society, 1865 Broadway 61'st St., New York, NY 10023 or Amazon.com.

Kubo, Sakae. A Reader's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament and A Beginner's Guide for the translation of the New Testament Greek. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1975. Available through Christian Book Distributer or Amazon.com.

Metzger, Bruce M. Lexical Aids for Students of New Testament Greek (Paperback - Aug 1, 1998). Available through Christian Book Distributer or Amazon.com.

5. Recommended Textbooks

Funk, Robert W., editor/translator. Greek Grammar of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature. This is the standard grammar book all the exegetes of the NT need to have. The book is usually called BDF (Blass, Debrunner, and Funk).

Wallace, Daniel. Greek Grammar Beyond the Basics. Zondervan, 1996.

Abbot-Smith, George. Manual Greek Lexicon of the New Testament. T&T Clark, 1937. Available from Christian Book Distributor. One of the best. Concise and profound.

Bauer, Walter. A. Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament. University of Chicago Press, 1957. Available from Christian Book Distributor. The best-known and most comprehensive for a Seminary level student.

Thayer, George Henry. A Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament. American Book, 1889. Available from Christian Book Distributor. Very inexpensive for the quality.

V. Honor Policy

Alliance Theological Seminary has an honor policy and a statement of Academic Honesty. Classes at ATS are designed so that students will not only know the truth, but will speak and live the truth in a manner consistent with the vocation of ministry as given by God. ATS policies provide:

1. That students shall neither give nor receive any assistance, whether verbal, written, or electronic, during quizzes or examinations at ATS beyond that specifically permitted by the instructor.

2. That in all coursework, students will not use the words or ideas of another person without so specifying. This statement includes the use of published and unpublished written materials and the assistance of others (writers, editors, etc.) in the production of coursework.

The policy further states the following: “Any students apprehended in cheating, including plagiarism, during his or her college matriculation, is subject to the following discipline:

- a. First offense – failure in the course involved.
- b. Second offense – dismissal.”

“Cases of cheating are reported to the Dean. Appeals may be made to the Student Government Judiciary Board or the college administrators, with the provision that the instructor involved and the Dean be present when the case is considered.”
